

Canada

James Diamond, Environment and Climate Change Canada

Actions

- Strategy on Short-Lived Climate Pollutants (5 Year plan)
 - Published Federal methane regulations for oil and gas sectors published
 - Enhance methane and black carbon representation in climate and air quality models
 - Canada-U.S. Air Quality Agreement supports collaboration on oil and gas sector emissions (fugitives)
 - Initial work to implement consistent national requirements for the World Bank Zero Routine Flaring by 2030 initiative

Actions

- Sub-national regulatory activity for oil and gas methane reductions
 - British Columbia - the Drilling and Production Regulation is amended with methane requirements
 - Saskatchewan - The Oil and Gas Emissions Management Regulations
 - Alberta - developed regulatory requirements within Directive 060: Upstream Petroleum Industry Flaring, Incinerating, and Venting, and Directive 017: Measurement Requirements for Oil and Gas Operations.